60. MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mayor reported that in response to the letter that had been received by the Council regarding the closure of the Flint branch of Barclays Bank, a letter from the Mayor and Deputy had been sent to Barclays and the response had been circulated to Councillors.

Councillors expressed their disappointment at the closure and said this would be to the detriment of the Town.

Councillor S K. License proposed a statement was sent to the local press to inform the Town of the Council's extreme disappointment of the closure and the effect this will have on the Town and that the Council had written to Barclays Bank to share their views.

The Mayor also proposed a letter was sent to the Manager and staff of the Flint branch to thank them for their services to the Town.

The Mayor referred to the email which had been circulated to all Councillors from Flintshire County Council regarding the Census 2021 and asked this information was put on the Council's website.

RESOLVED: That contact will be made with the local News Reporter; the Town Clerk will send a letter of thanks to the Manager and staff of the Flint branch and that the Census 2021 information will be put on the Council's website.
