251. MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mayor reported her highlights this month included visiting the Foodbank with the local Knit and Natter group, who were making a donation to the foodbank. Sainsburys also match funded the donation and it was humbling to be part of this day.

The Mayor said it was privilege to officially open 'The Old Bank' restaurant which is located in a very impressive building in our Town.

The Mayor also was extremely pleased to accept the Defibrillator from the Flint and District Lions which has been erected on the rear of the Town Hall building. We hope this will save countless lives.

The Mayor said she had arranged an Easter Egg hunt at the Castle on Easter Sunday which involved learning about the history of the Castle. Over 150 children attended, which was wonderful and the left-over chocolate eggs were donated to the River Dee Centre Easter event.

The Mayor concluded to thank fellow Councillors for the honour of bestowing her to be Town Mayor, it has been a privilege and has brought her immense pleasure.

Councillor P. Cunningham paid tribute to the Mayor for all her efforts and especially with inviting Schools into the Town Hall.

RESOLVED: Noted.
